Dear Member of the Bar:

The Judges of the First Judicial District recognize that pro bono service is an important and meaningful way of ensuring justice for the citizens of Philadelphia. The First Judicial District's Pro Bono Committee acknowledge attorneys who provide pro bono services to litigants in Philadelphia Courts by publishing an annual Pro Bono Roll of Honor. All qualifying attorneys will be recognized at the Fourth Annual Pro Bono Award Reception in January 2010.

On behalf of the Pro Bono Committee, I invite you to submit your name for recognition as part of the First Judicial District's Pro Bono Roll of Honor. Attorneys may become members of the Roll of Honor through a self-nominating process whereby they submit their names along with a log of their pro bono services. The criteria for eligibility are as follows:

1. The attorney must practice in Philadelphia County and must have provided services to a client or client group for a case before the First Judicial District during the 2009 calendar year.
2. The attorney must not be employed by an organization that has, as its primary purpose, the provision of free legal services to the underprivileged.
3. The attorney must have provided direct delivery of legal services with no expectation of receiving a fee, to a client or client group that does not have the resources to employ compensated counsel, or the attorney must have worked to facilitate such effort by other attorneys.

The self-nominating form is available on the FJD website under "News and Announcements" at <http://courts.phila.gov> and the Philadelphia Bar Association's website at www.philabar.org. The deadline for submitting nomination forms for the 2009 Pro Bono Roll of Honor is November 25, 2009. The form should be sent to the attention of Deborah Dailey, Deputy Prothonotary, First Judicial District of Pennsylvania, by e-mail at debbie.dailey@courts.phila.gov, facsimile at 215-567-7380, or mail addressed to Room 284 City Hall, Philadelphia, Pa., 19107.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Regards,

Daniel J. Anders
Judge, Court of Common Pleas
