Elder Justice Resource Center (EJRC) Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Credit Agreement

The Elder Justice Resource Center (EJRC) in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board (CLE Board) will grant continuing legal education (CLE) credits for attendance at its training programs to lawyers who volunteer for a minimum of six (6) hours in the EJRC.

There is no charge to the volunteer for the training program or training materials. Volunteers who participate must meet all of the other requirements of the CLE Board.

EJRC Volunteer Attorney Criteria

The volunteer attorneys staffing the EJRC will be expected to provide short-term, limited legal advice or representation only, pursuant to Pa.R.P.C. 6.5. Due to the limited nature of the representation involved, volunteer attorneys will not be asked to provide legal representation in court proceedings and cannot file any documents or pleadings on behalf of a client they meet with in the EJRC. The scope of legal representation is restricted to the time they are present in the center on a given day. Volunteer attorneys are not expected to have any ongoing attorney-client relationship beyond the hours they volunteer in the EJRC.

The volunteer will be credited one CLE credit for each hour of training attended. There is no limit on the number of credits obtained annually through the EJRC training program. Training programs will be offered three to four times a year with a minimum of three (3) credits available per training session. At least two sessions a year will include ethics credit. The aim is to provide all twelve (12) required CLE credits hours as part of your volunteering with the EJRC.

EJRC would like our volunteers to begin scheduling their volunteer time within two weeks of the training session they attended. To receive credit, a volunteer must work a minimum of six (6) hours in the center within three (3) months of the training session. A signed volunteer agreement with a listing of hours worked must be received in the EJRC for the CLE agreement to be considered fulfilled. EJRC submits the credits to the CLE board within two weeks of the training date. However, if a volunteer does not complete a minimum of six (6) hours within three (3) months, the credit will be retracted.
